Chicago, October 8.—The Tribune in an editorial says: The Tribune has been permitted to copy the following written to a friend by a man by an officer in Gen. Hancock's department, and who for many years has been near to the person and the presence of Gen. Hancock.

Verbatim as it evinces the wisdom and foresight of his commanding general and bears marks of truth and sincerity; it says: "Governors Island, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Gen. Hancock, dear old man, is just on the verge of depression and knows not which way to turn or what to do. The letters of the President have turned his head, and the continued turmoil of the campaign with the differences between the Northern and Southern Democrats so strongly marked, to equalize and adjust, I fear will drive him stark mad. My dear boy, Hancock is no more fit for the Presidency than a withered hemlock. I will be frank with you; it is true that he knows nothing of the South except the fine polished and crafty leaders that call upon him, and his brief acquaintance with the same class in '67 at New Orleans. He means well but he cannot comprehend the crookedness of politics and those bred in the same politicians; and now while on this subject I will give you the secret of this man; and that is this: Indiana, disunionist W. H. English is to be the President. Hancock is not expected to live only a fraction of this term; this is furnished from the fact that any deviation from his regular habits is an apoplectic attack. Strong symptoms have twice exhibited themselves since his nomination, and its the verdict all around him that his promotion to the Presidency will termin-ate his earthly career; but this fact has been most carefully guarded as you can discern, and dear boy you have the inside of this Presidential business with English, as past, you can readily comprehend what those shrewd fellows of the South can accomplish." The above reads like a family letter, indeed it came from a member of Gen. Hancock's military family and one who regards Hancock with some affection, as a son feels for his father. We have the original letter in our possession with a private note from the receiver of it, authorizing the use for publication but withholding the name of the writer for personal reasons.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—A Times Indianapolis special says: The Times correspondent while in the Democratic headquarters, chanced to mention the report he had heard, that $10,000 would be offered in one lump on Porter to morrow, and vague and uncertain as the intelligence was it created a panic. Democratic statesmen have it that a portion of the Republican corruption fund will be used in that way. It is probable that a Democratic pool will be made to take any big bluffs which may be made. And now comes Judge Martindale, former editor of the Indianapolis Journal, with the statement, that in a conversation with General Grant, had at Manitou Springs, Colorado, last July, the latter had expressed himself substantially as in the Rev. Fowler interview. Judge Martindale says: "However, Grant in speaking of Hancock referred to him in terms of praise with the qualification, that, though he had proven an excellent corps commander he had never shown himself possessed of the ability to fill a higher position.
The Judge remembers distinctly that he had used none of the soldier like epithets applied to him by Rev. Fowler, and the harshest criticism he had indulged in was that Hancock was wrapped up in himself, and that he was undoubtedly a vain man. Grant went into details with regard to the Louisiana business, and his remarks on this subject were about as given in his published interview, only more emphatic.

Martindale said he would have given this important information before but for the fact that he supposed the conversation was private. Simon Cameron, chairman of the Republican state central committee, is reported as saying on the occasion of his last visit to Indianapolis, that the Indiana organization was the most perfect one he ever had seen.

New York, Oct. 8.—The Times says: The concurrent testimony of our correspondents who have examined the party prospects in the congressional districts of the various states is, that solid gains will be made in the Republican delegation to be selected this fall in Ohio. The Republicans expect to gain six representatives in Indiana, at least two in Pennsylvania, probably two, and even more, in North Carolina, which has at present but one Republican representative.
Starting with Vermont with a Republican gain of one district and with the expectation of returning from 20 to 30 seats throughout the north the political complexion of the new house is a matter of doubt.

The same paper reviewing the Hancock-McGinnis affair says there is no doubt that McGinnis is a coarse, brutal ruffian, and so manifestly unfit to fill the District Attorneyship or any office of trust or decency that it was the plain duty of Hancock, an independent Republican, to declare his unworthiness to the party.

The Commercial Bulletin says: The possession of Panama is "a sine qua non" to the construction of a Panama canal as it affords the necessary working basis. It will, however, cost the canal company seventy million francs which with the payment to Lieutenant Ulysses ten millions francs will absorb eighty millions of the four hundred millions stock which according to Paris advices it is proposed to issue leaving only three hundred and twenty millions. The cost of the work is estimated at eight hundred and forty-three millions francs and numerous other expenditures amount to full three hundred millions more.

New York, Oct. 8.—The Herald-Indianapolis special asserts positively that Senator Bannan laid down his check for $10,000 on Monday on a table in room 19, and Mr. English covered it with his check for $10,000, after which Bannan went over to Cincinnati. Mr. New is in constant receipt of dispatches from Louisville and Harrisburg giving information of the movements of the repeaters, and Gov. Gorham tells me that they are confident of the presence here of between 700 and 800 ruffians from New York and Philadelphia. Among the prominent men from Philadelphia are the notorious Bill McMullen, Buck McDonnell, Johnny McCormick, Joe Tather, W. Gallup, Morton Kallucky, John Duer, John Carrihan, Joe Henry, B. L. Smith, C. Adam and Mike Stofford, all well known in their city. It is supposed that Indianapolis will be the distributing center from whence will go the essentials for victory in Cincinnati and Columbus.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Lizzie E. widow of the late W. C. Ralston, has filed a complaint in the Supreme Court against Senator Sharon. The documents covers 265 pages, and is to the effect that Ralston and Sharon were partners in business; that Sharon was sole executor of which the complainant was sole beneficiary.
Their partnership property at the time of Ralston's death amounted in value to, in round numbers, of thirty million dollars, and that Ralston, just before his death, gave Sharon a trust deed of his property; that Sharon has had the custody of the partnership books and papers; that no inventory of her late husband's property has been filed by the executors; that Sharon by false representations and other means has defrauded her in the settlement of Ralston's estate of a large amount, for which she demands such restitution as may prove just.

Del Norte, Cal., Oct. 8.—A Lieutenant of the 4th cavalry passing through here to-day stated that while his command were encamped at Rock Cliff, reports reached them that a man supposed to be A. D. Jackson, that was taken from Clint, Homes & Hoyt while they were pretending to escort him to the garrison, was found dead at the stake, having suffered the horror of Indian torture, as this tallies with the threats made by them. There is scarcely a hope that this is not true.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 8.—On last Wednesday evening in Ballinan county, Mississippi, a difficulty occurred between B. J. Owen, a Justice of the Peace, and J. W. Glaver, a farm r.
Owen was holding his court when Glaver made a disturbance and was ordered under arrest by Owen. Pistols were at once drawn by both and firing commenced by each. Owen fell dead. Glaver ran about 800 yards and fell. He died after lingering eight hours. Both were young men of good standing in the county.

Chicago, October 8.—A Daily News reporter had a brief interview with Gen. Grant this forenoon. The ex-president was asked if he received any communication from Gen. Hancock relative to the recent Fowler interview. The General replied, "I have not." Reporter, "Do you expect a communication?" "It is not impossible that I shall hear from General Hancock." Grant leaves for New York accompanied by Mrs.
Grant, via the Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne Railroad, at 3 o'clock this p. m. He will go through without making any stops.

Indianapolis, October 8.—The reunion and rally of the boys in blue today is a grand success, and immense crowds of people are in attendance.
The streets on the line of the march are literally packed. The parade commenced at eleven and was one hour and fifteen minutes passing a given point. The streets on the line of the march were handsomely decorated with flags and bunting. The afternoon was devoted to speaking; Senator Conkling, Emory Storrs, and Postmaster General Maynard and other prominent speakers delivered addresses.

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 8.—At the farwell meeting of the American Board, held this forenoon reports of various missions were read, and it was stated that the estimates from foreign fields call for about $600,000 to prosecute the work next year. Several missionaries were introduced who were about to leave for foreign shores. The convention terminated with prayer, hymn and benediction.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Near the town of Disbrie Ariz., last Tuesday, a man by the name of Dodson attempted to outrage a young lady whose name was not ascertained. Her father rescued her. Dodson returned and died two shots, one of which killed a brother of the girl the other wounding her. Dodson escaped. A party are in pursuit.

London, Oct. 8.—There are reasons to believe that the fleet will siege several of the chief ports of Algiers, to cut off supplies and money from Asia and islands to Constantinople.

New York, October 8.—Episcopal Canon this forenoon read the report on missionary work which made a very satisfactory showing, especially as regards foreign missionary work and money collected.

Boston, October 8.—Elias Vanny of Charleston, and Mr. Falconer of Ayer Junction, were killed by accident on the Fitzburg road last night and several others were seriously injured.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The cases against ex-Postmaster General Key pending in the Supreme Court, and brought by lottery men, will now be dismissed.

London, Oct. 8.—Imports for Sept.
6th were a half million pounds more than last year, and the exports two and a half million greater than last year.

New York, Oct. 8.—The epizootic is disappearing. There are but few new cases to-day and these are of the mildest form.

Salem, Mass., October 8. Chas.
F. Freeman, the child murderer, escaped from Duncans Insane Hospital

Centling, October 8.—The Russian embassy has been instructed to send all officers on leave to their ship as they sail immediately.

Providence, October 8.—The Republicans of the 2d district nominated Jonathan Chase for congress.

Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The Democrats of the 14th district nominated L. Beach for congress.

borers were killed this forenoon by the caving in of a bank.
